THE ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL

Boston, Massachusetts

May 10, 1950

*Be proud, O English High School, of thy sons
Who scaled War's bristling bastions framed in fire
And 'mid the thunder of a thousand guns
Repurchased Freedom*

The Alumni Association of The English High School dedicates this book to the memory of the school's graduates and former students who died in World War II.

Walter F. Downey, Head Master

At the end of each quarter century the English High School has celebrated the year of its founding.

In 1821, while the city of Boston was still a town, this school was established by the Boston School Committee. The importance of providing a school of higher grade which would afford the youth of the town an opportunity to prepare for a business life had come to be recognized by the School Committee. Early in the year 1820 a sub-committee consisting of Samuel A. Wells, a well-known merchant, Rev. John Pierpont and Rev. Nathaniel Langdon Frothingham, prominent members of the clerical profession, Lemuel Shaw, who later became Chief Justice of the Commonwealth, and Benjamin Russell, editor of the Columbian Centinel, was appointed to consider the subject.

In October of that same year, 1820, the report was filed with the School Committee. The report closed with these words:

"No money can be better expended than that which is appropriated to the support of public schools. If anything will preserve tranquillity and order in a community, perpetuate the blessings of society and free government, and promote the happiness and prosperity of a people, it must be the general diffusion of knowledge. These salutary effects, the committee conceive, would flow from the institution of this seminary. Its establishment, they think, would raise the literary and scientific character of the town, would incite our youth to a laudable ambition of distinguishing themselves in the pursuit and acquisition of knowledge, and would give strength and stability to the civil and religious institutions of our country."

The recommendations embodied in this report were adopted by the School Committee. At a town meeting held in Faneuil Hall on January 15, 1821, the citizens voted to establish the English Classical School. By this name the school was designated until 1824, when it became known as the English High School. The original name was restored, but on March 13, 1832, the designation English High School was formally adopted by the School Committee, and so it has since remained. It is the oldest general high school in the United States.

In the early history of the school preparation for college was not a school aim. However, as the demand developed, a college preparatory course was added, as well as a course which prepared for schools of engineering. For the last half century, after graduation, between forty and fifty percent have gone to higher institutions of learning. Thousands of graduates are leaders in the business and professional life of our city, state and nation, and have distinguished themselves in peace and in war.

At the conclusion of World War I a beautiful memorial plaque was erected in the school building. The sculptor of this plaque was Silas Dallin. On it are these words:

"English High School acclaims her sons who have faced death for their country in the wars of the last hundred years."

After a long period of planning by the committees representing the entire Alumni Association, Wednesday, May 8, 1946, was agreed upon as the date for the 125th Anniversary Celebration.

On that day there was an impressive parade of graduates. The oldest class represented in the parade was that of 1873. The two surviving members of that class, Thomas W. Roulston, then 89 years of age, and William Beeching, then 91 years of age, were present and rode in a car driven by the son of Thomas W. Roulston, who himself is a member of the Class of 1932. There was a review at Copley Square by Governor Maurice J. Tobin, and other prominent officials. Following the parade, luncheons were held by the various classes in hotels throughout the city. In the afternoon the whole body went to Braves Field where athletic contests were held. The interscholastic event of the afternoon was the annual baseball game between the English High School and Boston Latin School. English High School won by a score of 7-2. In the evening a general alumni dinner was held in Mechanics Building, attended by about 1600 members of the alumni body.

One of the unique features of this dinner was an address delivered in Tokyo, Japan, by the General Chairman, Chief Justice John P. Higgins, Class of 1911. This was recorded in the United States, and re-broadcast at the dinner. Walter Gordon Swan, Class of 1924, Program Manager of Station WBZ, made the necessary arrangements.

It was an occasion long to be remembered by the alumni and friends of the school.

However, from the beginning, the entire alumni effort was a special dedication to the services of E. H. S. men who had served in World War II.

For their sacrifices the alumni felt any one memorial would be inadequate. By the funds raised during and before the celebration, Memorial Scholarships were established in their honor.

On May 11, 1949, a beautiful and impressive Memorial was dedicated in the school building. A picture and description of this Memorial appears elsewhere in this volume.

In addition, a sum of money was set aside for the publication of a memorial book — "IN MEMORIAM, WORLD WAR II, THE ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL, BOSTON" — which, it was said, "would be a proud page in the history of our one hundred and twenty-five years."

The memorial book is herewith submitted.

Hundreds of alumni have contributed to the preparation of this volume.

It has not been possible to include the names of all who served in World War II because of the large number of E. H. S. men in the armed forces, and the great difficulty in securing an accurate list of names. Herein are given, as nearly as now can be ascertained, the names, citations, and military history of every man who made the supreme sacrifice. Every effort has been made to secure the picture of each one. In general we have been successful. In those few cases where we have been unable to secure a picture we have published the names and military history.

We wish to express appreciation to the hundreds of alumni who have been helpful in the preparation and arrangements for the 125th Anniversary. The names of the officers and members of committees are given elsewhere in this volume.

Under the direction of Henry A. Sasserno, Class of 1911, and the members of the Memorial Committee, we have a beautiful War Memorial in the school. The sculptor was John F. Paramino, whose vital interest in this Memorial was an inspiration.

To the officers and members of the various committees and sub-committees, to the hundreds of alumni who contributed to the Memorial Fund, and to the members of the faculty who have assisted throughout the Celebration, the School wishes to express its deep-felt thanks.

As a group all felt that no effort was too great to show in some slight measure the appreciation of our nation for the great sacrifices of E. H. S. men in World War II.

For the last fifty to seventy-five years many of the parents of English High School boys have come from other countries. Many of these families have come to the United States of America in search of freedom and opportunity which were partly denied them in the country of their birth. Their sons have come to English High School, have profited by the education offered them, have graduated, and have become loyal American citizens and leaders in many fields of endeavor. They have shown in every way their appreciation of the opportunity afforded them in this school and this nation.

When America was challenged by nations which sought world domination, when the ideals and principles of American democracy were threatened, the boys of English High School responded valiantly. Over fifty-five hundred were in the armed forces — two hundred and seventy made the supreme sacrifice.

It is because of the individual and collective heroism of these boys and the desire to do honor to their parents that the dedication plaque of our World War II Memorial reads as follows:

FROM MANY LANDS THEIR FOREBEARS CAME IN SEARCH OF FREEDOM. IN ITS DEFENSE THEY FOUGHT. MANY DIED. GOD GRANT THAT THEIR SACRIFICES MAY MAKE STRONGER THE BONDS THAT UNITE ALL MANKIND.

MEMORIAL ADDRESS AT DEDICATION EXERCISES WORLD WAR II MEMORIAL ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL, MAY 11, 1949

Dr. Downey, Mr. Sasserno, Alumni, Cadets, and Friends:

The ceremony which marked the dedication of the World War I Memorial twenty-eight years ago, when I was a student here, is quite clear in my memory. Little did those of us then present foresee that within a score of years, another and greater struggle would engulf the world, and that some of us would be participants in it.

Yet that war did come; it has taken its staggering toll in men and treasure; and it has passed into history. Victory, military victory at least, once again has crowned American arms. And now once again, a memorial is being dedicated to English High School men who gave their lives in the great global struggle.

The memorial is appropriate; it is significant; it is beautiful and inspiring.

The cynic, viewing this memorial, may say that no man went to his death in battle during this war consciously thinking of such intangibles as Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Worship and Freedom of the Press. And he would, in all probability be correct, because the grim reality of the business at hand was too imminent, too personal, for contemplation of such abstractions.

But it would be well that the cynic be reminded that the personal resolve to serve in a war wherein those Freedoms were at stake was formed, perhaps subconsciously, long before; that schools such as ours were the places where such resolves were made; or, if not made, were the places where existed the influences which eventually led to the resolve. When war came, there remained but the fulfillment.

When we reflect how little our youth, training, and education are calculated to prepare men for the severe restraints of military service, when we consider how inconsistent their freedom is with that stern control which gives to a single mind the power embodied in thousands and millions of men, we may well be amazed at the ready submission which is given to its demands.

But we know that the education of a free people in great ideas consists not in books alone; but in the warmth and glow that is transmitted from one human being to another and by the inspiration drawn from works of art and other means which depict and perpetuate the noble and heroic influences and achievements of the past.

This memorial is such a means of education. It is an inspiring means of perpetuating the noble and heroic achievements of our people in the remote and in the immediate past, to which English High School men have given more than generously in valor and sacrifice. It defines for our successors what the essential aims of the war were. And it suggests the kind of men who fought and won it. They were burning with no fierce fire of personal ambition, they had no desire to exalt themselves, they had no expectation of attaining those rare rewards which are reserved for great military chieftains. They had no such hopes. They knew that if they survived, all the honor they could obtain was that general praise which customarily is given to all who serve faithfully; that the only pride in which they could indulge was that which comes from knowing that they were united in spirit with those of the past who had been brave and true.

Deep within us all tonight is the hope that this will be the last War Memorial to be dedicated. We dare to entertain that hope only because we pray that our successors will be spared the awful experience of war.

Whatever the future may bring, this Memorial will speak to those who belong to it, of those who in our day, above and beyond the confusion of the hour, beheld and understood and strove manfully for the grand objectives of the war, as portrayed in these tablets and which are and have been, the constant goals of our Republic.

For those 270 E. H. S. men, who with their comrades in youth and bravery, in the final fulfillment of their resolve, embraced death in the name of these Freedoms, we can but invoke, with all humility, the ancient prayer in the ancient language: —

"Requiem aeternam dona eis Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis."
Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and may perpetual light shine upon them.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

By His Excellency

MAURICE J. TOBIN

Governor

A PROCLAMATION

1946

ONE hundred and twenty-five years ago one of the most significant developments in the history of free public education in America was undertaken in Massachusetts when the citizens of Boston voted to establish a new kind of secondary school. This school, they felt, should provide instruction beyond the grammar grades for boys who desired to prepare themselves for stations in life other than those requiring the traditional training afforded by the Latin academy and the classical college.

Thus was conceived The English High School of Boston. Thus was originated a form of training which has become standard in the pattern of public education in America.

Throughout the century and a quarter of its existence The English High School has amply justified the confidence of those who foresaw its usefulness. It has sent forth thousands upon thousands of loyal sons, their intellectual faculties sharpened by an effective system of instruction, their moral fibre strengthened by the inculcation of salutary principles.

In peace and in war these sons of The English High School have won distinction. They have played a vital part in the civic, the economic, and the cultural life of many communities. They have served their country with honor in every conflict from the Mexican War in 1847 to the World War recently terminated. They have built for their Alma Mater a reputation second to that of no similar school in the United States.

In recognition, therefore, of the historic significance of the one hundred and twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of and in tribute to the illustrious achievements of an institution that has won such renown, I, Maurice J. Tobin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby designate Wednesday, May 8, 1946, as a day for the appropriate observance of one of the epochal events in the development of the American system of free public education.

GIVEN at the Executive Chamber in Boston, this tenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-six, and of the Independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and seventieth.

MAURICE J. TOBIN.

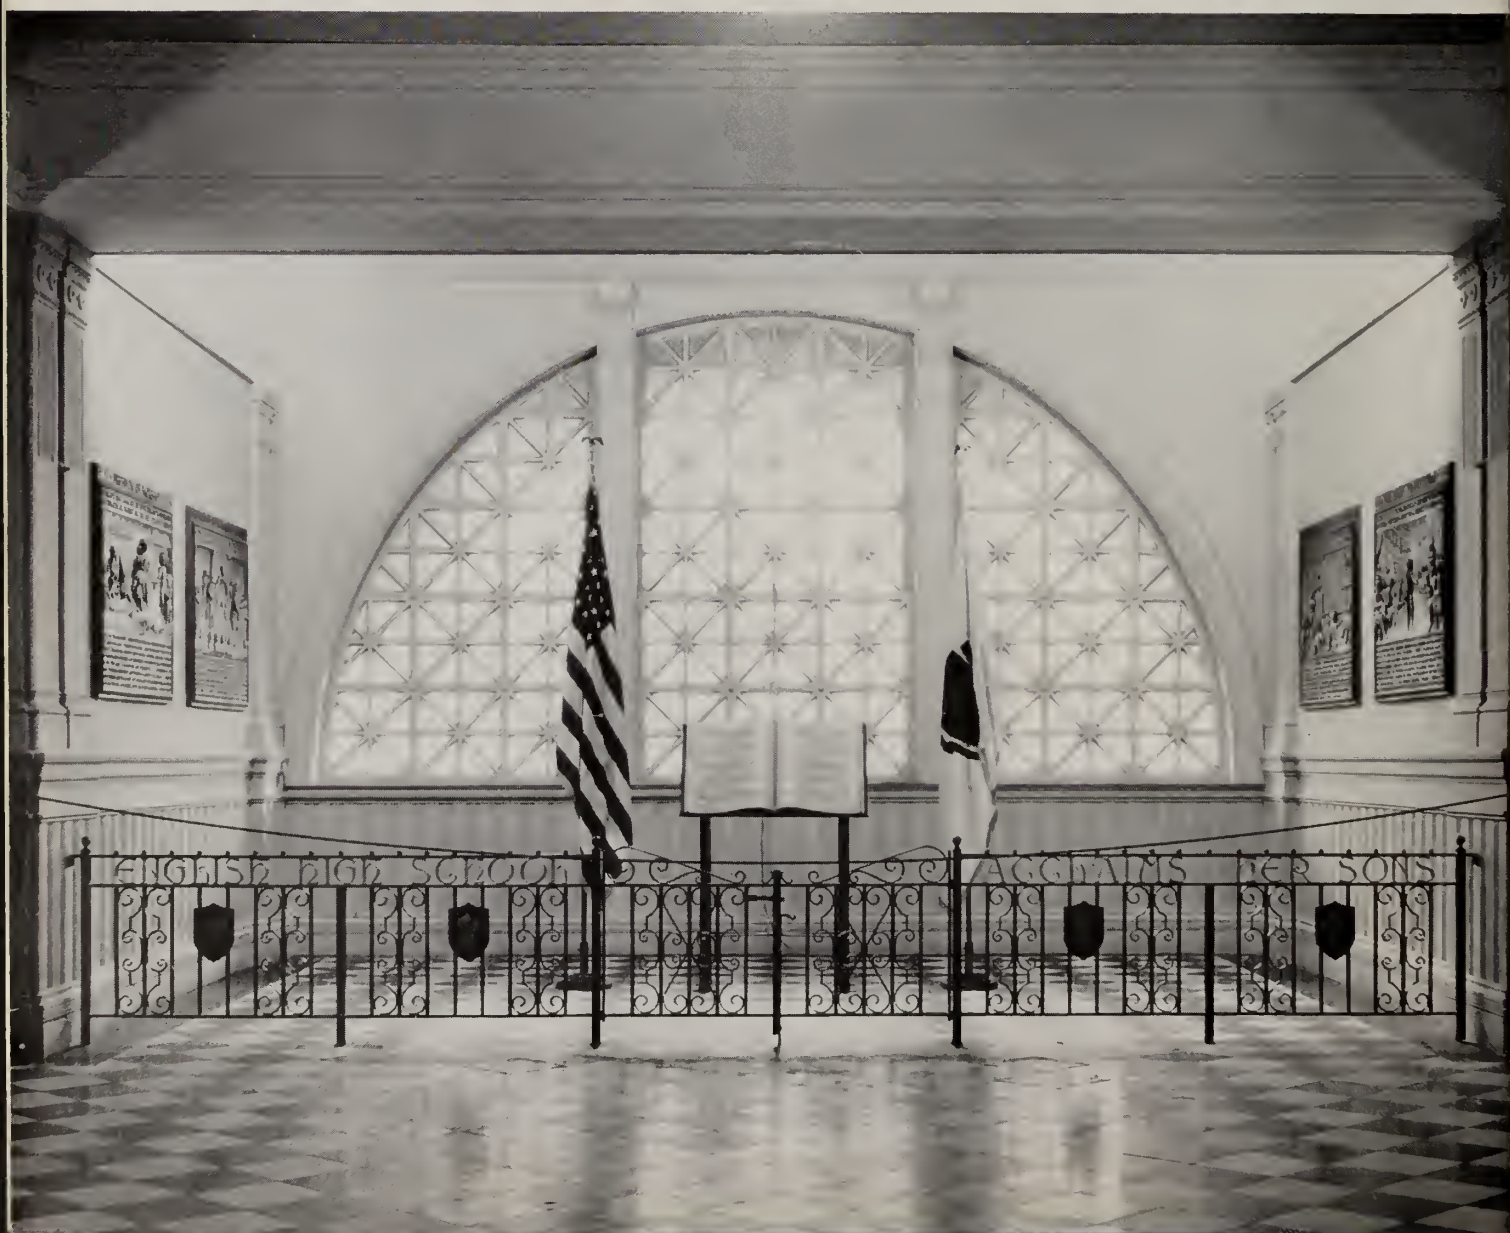

By His Excellency the Governor,

FREDERIC W. COOK,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

God Save The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

This World War II Memorial, presented to the English High School by the Alumni, was unveiled and dedicated, Wednesday, May 11, 1949.

FREEDOM OF WORSHIP

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW RESPECTING AN ESTABLISHMENT OF RELIGION, OR PROHIBITING THE FREE EXERCISE THEREOF.

EXILED BY THE MASSACHUSETTS BAY COLONY, ROGER WILLIAMS ESTABLISHED IN RHODE ISLAND, THE FIRST DEMOCRATIC COMMONWEALTH IN AMERICA. AS AN ESSENTIAL PART OF HIS POLITICAL THEORY, HE WAS ADVOCATE OF ABSOLUTE FREEDOM FOR THE INDIVIDUAL IN MATTERS OF RELIGION. IN HIS OWN WORDS: "GOD REQUIRETH NOT AN UNIFORMITY OF RELIGION TO BE ENACTED AND ENFORCED IN ANY CIVIL STATE. IT IS GOD'S WILL AND COMMAND THAT . . . A PERMISSION OF THE MOST DIFFERING CONSCIENCES AND WORSHIPS BE GRANTED TO ALL MEN IN ALL NATIONS AND COUNTRIES, AND THEY ARE ONLY TO BE FOUGHT AGAINST WITH THAT SWORD WHICH IS ONLY, (IN SOUL, MATTERS) ABLE TO CONQUER. TO WIT, THE SWORD OF GOD'S SPIRIT — THE WORD OF GOD."

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND OF THE PRESS

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW ABRIDGING THE FREEDOM OF SPEECH, OR OF THE PRESS

THE PLEA OF ANDREW HAMILTON RESULTING IN THE ACQUITTAL IN 1734 OF JOHN PETER ZENGER, A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER IN THE THEN ROYAL PROVINCE OF NEW YORK, CHARGED WITH SEDITIOUS UTTERANCES AGAINST THE ROYAL AUTHORITY, VINDICATED IN AMERICA THE RIGHT OF FREE SPEECH AND PRESS. "FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND PRESS IS TO BE UNABRIDGED, BECAUSE IT IS THE ONLY MEANS OF TESTING OUT THE TRUTH. A FREEDOM WHICH DOES NOT EXTEND TO A MINORITY, HOWEVER SMALL, WOULD BE A VERY PARTIAL AFFAIR. IF AMERICANISM MEANS ANYTHING, IT CERTAINLY MEANS TOLERANCE FOR DIFFERING OPINIONS HOWEVER OBJECTIONABLE THEY MAY SEEM PROTECTION AGAINST BAD THINKING AND SPEAKING MUST BE GAINED BY THE STRENGTH OF ARGUMENT AND A CONFIDENCE IN AMERICAN COMMON SENSE AND AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS, INCLUDING THAT MOST CHARACTERISTIC OF ALL — FREEDOM OF THOUGHT."

THE RIGHT PEACEABLY TO ASSEMBLE

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW ABRIDGING THE RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE PEACEABLY TO ASSEMBLE

THE FOUR FREEDOMS AS INCORPORATED INTO THE BILL OF RIGHTS MAY BE SAID TO HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN AMERICA AS A GROWTH FROM THE FIRST SETTLEMENT ON. IN THE POLITICAL AND MORAL CONSCIOUSNESS OF THE PEOPLE THE RIGHT OF PEACEABLE ASSEMBLY FOR THE DISCUSSION OF PUBLIC QUESTIONS SEEMS A RIGHT PARTICULARLY INHERENT IN THE FABRIC OF THE GROWING NATION. TYPICAL OF THE EXPRESSION OF THIS RIGHT WAS THE ASSEMBLING OF THE PEOPLE IN THE OLD SOUTH CHURCH MARCH 6, 1775, TO HEAR THE NOBLE SPEECH OF JOSEPH WARREN — ONE OF THE MOST DRAMATIC AS WELL AS MOMENTOUS IN THE CIVIL HISTORY OF OUR COUNTRY. "YOU WILL NOT TURN YOUR FACES FROM YOUR FOES BUT WILL UNDAUNTEDLY PRESS FORWARD UNTIL TYRANNY IS TRODDEN UNDERFOOT AND YOU HAVE PLACED LIBERTY UNCORRUPTED ON THE AMERICAN THRONE." — JOSEPH WARREN.

THE RIGHT TO PETITION

CONGRESS SHALL MAKE NO LAW ABRIDGING THE
RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE TO PETITION THE GOVERN-MENT FOR A REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES.

THE RIGHT OF PETITION FOR THE REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES IS A FUNDAMENTAL INHERITANCE OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE — HOWEVER INVADED IN THE COLONIAL PAST OR NOTABLY IN 1830 BY THE SOUTHERN EFFORT TO CRUSH ATTEMPTS TO ABOLISH SLAVERY. FROM 1830 TO 1844, JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, AS REPRESENTATIVE FROM MASSACHUSETTS, KEPT UP AN UNBROKEN SERIES OF ATTACKS UPON THE SO-CALLED "GAG RULE," WHICH "LAID ON THE TABLE" ALL PETITIONS IN RESPECT TO SLAVERY. IN 1844, AFTER A STRUGGLE OF 14 YEARS, HE MADE HIS USUAL MOTION, AND ON THE VOTE IT WAS NOT "LAID ON THE TABLE." IN THAT MOMENT "GAG RULE" BECAME A THING OF THE PAST, AND MR. ADAMS HAD CONQUERED. THE RIGHT OF PETITION WAS VINDICTED.

In Memoriam

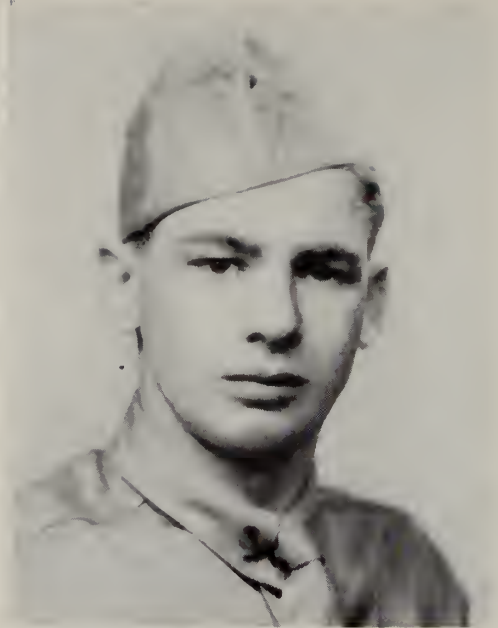

All honor to the sleeping brave:
We take the gifts their valor gave
And here, beneath the blue and blue
Of their bright banners ever true

We pledge to carry on and crown
The task their valiant hands laid down,
For them the praise, for us the task:
Their strength to do is all we ask.

Wave banner! Dip your folds anew!
Warned by the sun, wet by the dew,
Our oriflamme forever be
For one great people strong and free.
